

STARTUP SCIENCE

Investment Opportunity Script

[SOUND: Clock ticking]

Right now, there's over 150 million startups alive in the world.

This year alone, tens of millions will rise—one every 10 seconds.

They form a vast living universe full of ambition, risk, heartbreak, and breakthrough.

A trillion dollar ecosystem.

But unfortunately, most startups fail, destroying both dreams and capital.

Even reaching 10% changes everything.

THE SOLUTION

Startup Science exists to help more of them survive and thrive.

Our community is growing rapidly and we've already raised millions of dollars from professional investors.

But we want our community to have this opportunity too.

Why invest in one startup when you can invest in the ecosystem that supports them?

Be a part of something bigger.

Be a part of the startup success movement.

THE FOUNDER

One founder decided to change everything.

Gregory Shepard—a 12-time award-winning successful founder.

- Multiple private equity awards
- Recognized worldwide as an authority on entrepreneurship

- Investor, author, mirror divergent leader

He saw the pattern and he built the thing he wished he'd had when he was starting.

That's what Startup Science is.

THE PLATFORM

The entire fragmented startup ecosystem pulled together.

And it isn't just a platform—it's a global living ecosystem that's open to everyone.

The first of its kind all-in-one platform, including:

- Education
- Mentors
- Investors
- Grants
- Founders tools
- Marketplace offering millions of discounts from service and software providers

A connected global network of believers.

THE GROWTH

It's growing fast with:

- Thousands of entrepreneurs
- Hundreds of universities
- Scores of mentors, investors and service providers already here

One place, one mission: help them succeed.

THE COMMUNITY

The magic of Startup Science has always been the community.

And the community asked for this—a chance to go beyond, to become investors.

That's why we're opening this round.

THE BUSINESS

We're already generating revenue through:

- Subscriptions
- Licensing

Next comes:

- Sponsorships
 - Global data insights on the startup economy

THE OPPORTUNITY

Why should you care?

Entrepreneurs evolve the world.

It's a chance to change the system, to democratize entrepreneurship.

It started with one founder and became a movement.

Join us, help build the future and share in its rewards.
